Description of Activity:

The guest lecture was titled "International Financial Reporting Standard (IFRS) & Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (US GAAP)". The lecture provided a detailed comparison of IFRS, which is used globally, and US GAAP, predominantly followed in the United States.

Lecture was started with an overview of IFRS & US GAAP. Then the guest speaker explained key differences between IFRS & US GAAP.

The speaker highlighted ongoing efforts to align IFRS and US GAAP, though challenges remain due to differing frameworks, especially in areas like financial instruments and industry-specific rules.

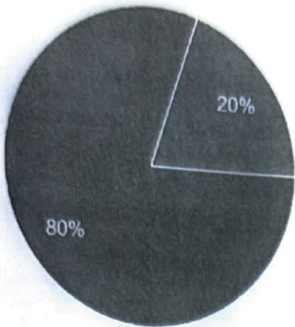

The lecture provided a clear understanding of the key distinctions between IFRS and US GAAP and their impact on global financial reporting. It was a valuable session for students and professionals alike.

At the end of the session there was a Question and Answer session with students. Where students got a clear response from the guest speaker.
