

Reel Making Workshop (in collaboration with BMS Department)

24th November 2025

A creative workshop on video/reel making was conducted under the Green Club initiative. Students learnt the basics of scripting, shooting, editing, and social media content creation. The activity helped students express ideas creatively and understand the role of digital communication.