

N. L. Dalmia College of Arts, Commerce & Science

Activity Report

Name of Activity: Guest Lecture: "Union Budget 2025: Key Highlights"

Conducted by : Economics Dept and Economics Club in association. (Name of Dept. / Assoc./ Committee / Club) on Monday, 14th Feb 2025 at 0800 am to 1000 am in 701

Name(s) of Teacher(s) Incharge: Asstt Prof. Neha Satoliya and Asstt Prof. Anju Chavan

No. of Participants: Male: 25 Female: 54 = Total 79 Students.

Description of Activity:

Guest Speaker: Asstt Prof Aakash Deshmukh

The session was conducted with an objective to provide an in-depth understanding of the key takeaways from the Budget 2025, analyse its impact on different sectors, and facilitate an interactive discussion among participants.

The session on "Key Highlights of Budget 2025" is designed to provide participants with a comprehensive understanding of the latest budget announcements, their implications, and sector-wise impacts. The session begins with a brief introduction to the significance of the Union Budget, explaining how it influences economic policies, taxation, and national development strategies. Participants will gain insights into the key financial allocations and policy changes introduced in the Budget 2025, covering critical areas such as taxation, infrastructure, healthcare, education, agriculture, and business reforms. Following the presentation, an expert-led analysis will break down the economic and policy implications, discussing the expected impact on businesses, consumers, and investment trends.

Feedback Analysis:

Expenses incurred for the Activity:

Nil

Attachment: File of Photos (Upload it to google drive)

Signature of In-charge : _____

Neha