Report on Constitution Day

The Department of Political Science successfully organized a Constitution Day celebration on 26th November 2024 to honor the adoption of the Indian Constitution. The event aimed to instill awareness of constitutional values among BA, BCom, and BMS students through various activities.

The program commenced with a Preamble reading, followed by an interactive discussion that provided insights into key constitutional values, fostering engagement and understanding. The event was graced by the presence of IQAC Coordinator Prof Anju Chavan Ma'am, BA Coordinator Foram Joshi Ma'am and Prof. Neha Satolia Ma'am, whose insights and encouragement added great value to the celebration.

As part of the celebration, students expressed their appreciation for constitutional principles by creating posters illustrating themes of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity. Their creative efforts reflected a deep understanding of the ideals enshrined in the Constitution. The event successfully promoted democratic principles, national unity, and civic responsibility.

Date: 26th November 2024

Time: 08:00 AM

Venue: Room 901

Audience: BA, BCom, and BMS Students

The celebration reinforced the significance of the Constitution and encouraged students to uphold its values in daily life.
