Report on Constitution Day Quiz – National Quiz on Constitutional Democracy

Date: Constitution Day Celebration

Organized by: Department of Political Science, N. L. Dalmia College of Arts, Commerce & Science

Platform: MyBharat Portal (Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports)

Total Participants: 40 Students

On the occasion of Constitution Day, the Department of Political Science encouraged students to participate in the National Quiz on Constitutional Democracy hosted on the MyBharat platform. The initiative aimed to promote awareness about the Indian Constitution, democratic values, and the responsibilities of citizens.

Students were invited to participate in the online quiz through the official link provided by the MyBharat portal. The activity served as an engaging learning opportunity, enabling students to enhance their understanding of constitutional principles, fundamental rights, duties, and democratic governance.

A total of 40 students actively participated and successfully completed the quiz. After completing the quiz, participants were able to download certificates, which added value to their academic and extracurricular achievements.

The activity helped students strengthen their constitutional awareness, critical thinking, and civic responsibility, while also encouraging them to actively engage with national initiatives that promote democratic education.

The program successfully contributed to promoting constitutional literacy and responsible citizenship among students, aligning with NAAC Criterion III (Extension and Outreach Activities) and Criterion VII (Institutional Values and Best Practices).
